Dry Goods and Shoes.

We are now ready for Fall and Winter business, with a full stock of Dry Goods and Shoes. I did not go to market until late, when there had been Breaks in Prices. I found sellers anxious to sell, and offering extra inducements to cash buyers. Being in a position to accept their offers I bought largely and at much lower prices than for several seasons past. That means you can buy your dry goods for less money than you did last year. My prices will be based on 8c cotton. No more 7c. for calico but the best branded goods will be sold for 5c. Goods that sold last season for 12½c. and 15c. now 10c.

Heavy 12½c. Canton Flannel for 10c.

Heavy yard wide Sheeting 5c.

The best selection of wool dress goods I have ever had and for less money. Better underwear for less money.

36 inch $1.25 Taffeta Silk for $1.00

I bear the standard of Good Shoes for little money.

Come and let us prove what we say.

A. K. Park,
